The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, December 22, 1763. [No. 972.]

DRESDEN, September 10.

WE learn from Poland, that a Detachment of Ruſſian Troops had entered that City, and carried off all the Ruſſian Deſerters who had taken refuge in it.

Warſaw, Sept. 3. On the 24th paſt, at a Conference with the Primate and the Treaſurer of the Crown, the Ruſſian Ambaſſador acquainted them, that he was empowered by the Empreſs his Sovereign to order the Ruſſian Troops to evacuate Lithuania; which Orders he, four Days after, ſent them accordingly.

Hague, Sept. 30. It is reported that the King of Pruſſia propoſes to march 20 or 24,000 Men into Mecklenburgh; but no Reaſon is aſſigned for this Step. It is certain that his Pruſſian Majeſty is ſending off a great many Men towards the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg, and the Neighbourhood of the Dutchy of Holſtein; But they are ſtill on his own Territory.

Sept. 27. It is reported that the King of Pruſſia has ſent a Miniſter extraordinary to Dantzick, to notify to that Government that his Pruſſian Majeſty cannot ſee with Pleaſure, that the Dantzickers ſhould ſell, or ſuffer to be carried out of their Town, the Powder that is made there, nor any other Sort of Ammunition, whether it be for Poland, or the Ruſſians, or for any other Power whatſoever, and that he required the Government to pay Attention to it. The Anſwer returned to the Requiſition was, that the City being independent of Pruſſia, and acknowledging moreover no other Sovereign than the King of Poland, they could not ſee by what Right he expected to reſtrict their Commerce; to which the Envoy's Reply was, that his Commiſſion being ended, he was going to ſet out directly for Berlin, in order to give an Account of it to the King his Maſter, adding, that Monarch would write on the Subject to the Senancy. And we are aſſured, that the King has ſince writ a Letter to them, with his own Hand, but we know not the Contents.

LONDON, September 8.

Saturday Evening laſt, the Right Hon. the Marquis of Granby, John Wilkes, Eſq; and the Rev. Mr. C. Churchill, ſeated themſelves in the ſame Box at Drury Lane Theatre, and received on the Occaſion ſuch loud Shouts of Applauſe from the Spectators, as for ſome Time interrupted the Performance.

As the Demolition of the Fortifications at Dunkirk ſeem not to take place, we are informed, that the French, according to their uſual Fineſſe in Politics, have found out, that by the Articles of Peace it is not clearly expreſſed at whoſe Expence the Demolition ſhall be made; and that, ſay they, if Great Britain will have the Works demoliſhed, and the Cunettes filled up, let them be at her Expence.

Oct. 9. It is ſaid, that an eminent Ship-Builder in South-Carolina, is now engaging a great many Ship-Wrights, Carpenters, &c. to go over to that Province, in order to carry on the Buſineſs of Ship-Building in all its Branches; which, from the Nature of the Materials, it is thought will anſwer better than that of New-England; the Carolina Oak being found to be of a more durable Texture than any to the Northward.

There is now finiſhed the moſt magnificent and ſuperb Piece of Plate, and of the moſt curious Workmanſhip ever yet made in England, or perhaps in any Part of the World, being a Toilet of Gold, double gilt; which is to be ſent as a Preſent to the Empreſs of Ruſſia, from the Ruſſia Merchants.

We hear Orders are gone over for all the old Cannon in the Province of New-England and the Forts to be melted down, and run into Field-Pieces of Four-Pounders, and great Quantities of Hand Granades are preparing to be ſhipped for North-America.

By a private Letter from Paris, we learn, that Count Lally (Son to the Governor of Guadaloupe, who was tried and degraded by a Court-Martial) was embarked for the Weſt-Indies, with his Lady Sitters, who were to be married there, the Ship they were on board of, was taken by a Salle Rover. M. Nadau writes, that he had agreed for his own Ranſom, and deſires the Money to be remitted to him; but alas! it was in vain to think of redeeming his Sitters, ſince they were already ſold, and carried to different Seraglios, he did not know whom. Theſe three young Ladies kept Houſe in Paris, and lived in a very genteel Way, with unblemiſhed Characters.

Extract of a Letter from Ratiſbon, Sept. 23.

"For ſome Days paſt a Coolneſs has been obſerved between the Miniſters of Auſtria, Bavaria, and Holland, on one Part, and thoſe of France, Sweden, and Palatine, on the other. Not but theſe Miniſters ſee one another ſometimes; but they obſerve a much greater Reſerve than formerly. It is pretended that the Differences which have ariſen between the Republic of Holland and the Palatine Court, have a Connection with this Coldneſs; and that if the Negociation which was begun ſo long ago, in order to terminate this Affair, ſhould be protracted much longer, it may poſſibly degenerate into an open Rupture, through the Inſtigation of a certain Power, which, it is ſaid, urges the Elector Palatine to aſſert his Claims.

"Some Auſtrian Officers, who have been here for ſome Time on Furloughs, have juſt received Orders to join their Regiments as ſoon as poſſible, and to provide themſelves with all Neceſſaries for taking the Field. Several Subalterns of that Nation are alſo come here to recruit. This, joined to the Preparations for War that are making in the Auſtrian Dominions, and elſewhere, occaſions much Speculation."

Extract of a Letter from Falmouth, Sept. 26, from Capt. Philip Miller, of the Ship Betty.

"I ſailed from Jamaica the 26th of July, a full Ship, and all well, till the firſt of September, off the Weſtern Iſlands, at Four in the Afternoon, the Ship was ſet on Fire below, and in Ten Minutes was all over in Flames; ſo that we had juſt Time to throw overboard two ſmall Boats to ſave ourſelves from periſhing in the Flames, and were in the Boats five Days, till taken up by a Ship from Briſtol for Philadelphia, and the ſame Day met with the preſent Ship I am on board, the Diſpatch, Capt. White, for London. I have ſaved nothing but what is on my back, not a Paper."

St. James's, Oct. 8. The King has been pleaſed to appoint Montague Wilmot, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of Nova Scotia in America, in the Room of Henry Ellis, Eſq; who has requeſted Leave to reſign that Government.

Alſo, To appoint the Hon. James Murray, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of Quebec in America.

To appoint the Hon. James Grant, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of Eaſt Florida in America.

Alſo, To appoint George Johnſtone, Eſq; to be his Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of Weſt Florida in America. Alſo

To appoint Robert Melvell, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Illands of Grenada, the Grenadines, Dominico, St. Vincent and Tobago, in America; and all other Illands and Territories adjacent thereto, and which now are, or heretofore have been, dependent thereupon.

October 11. The French King has eſtabliſhed nine Packet Boats between Rochfort and the Weſt-Indies, one to go about the 10th of every Month. The Captains will take on board the diſorderly Youths who ſhall be delivered over to them by the Commandant of the Marine at Rochfort; and go firſt to Cayenne, from thence to Martinico, then to St. Domingo, and from this laſt return directly to Rochfort. At all theſe three Settlements they will take on board the Officers and Soldiers who have Leave to return to France.

October 12. By Letters from Liſbon, they have received an Account there, that the Spaniards had made themſelves Maſters of the Portugueſe Settlement, called Rio Granda, to the Southward of Rio de Janeiro. This is looked on as a very valuable Acquiſition, and was taken in March laſt; and Hoſtilities were not to ceaſe in thoſe Parts till May.

As the Price of Foreign Gold and Silver Coin are reduced to their intrinſic Value, we hear a great Quantity of Gold and Silver Money will be ſoon coined.

Monday a Duel was fought in the King's Mews, between a North and South Briton, on Account of ſome Reflections made uſe of by the latter againſt a North Britiſh Peer; in which the latter received a Wound on his Right Side, which put an End to the Combat.

We hear, that laſt Saturday Night at Twelve o' Clock, an Order went from the War-Office to the Commanding Officer of the Third Regiment of Foot-Guards in the Tower, immediately to ſend a Party to Spitalfields, to quell the Riot among the Journeymen Weavers; and accordingly early on Sunday Morning, a Captain with 100 Men, marched thither, where they remain; which has entirely put a Stop to the Diſturbance.

A Correſpondent laments the unhappy Situation of the poor Weavers in Spitalfields at this Time, and ſays, "That it is rather to be wiſhed than expected, that ſome proper Perſons ſhould be appointed by Authority, no Way intereſted, but Judges of the proportionable Value of Labour, in the different Branches of our Manufactures, in order to ſettle their Prices. Ribbons, which were 10 or 12 Years ago, ſold for 4d and 5d. per Yard, were equal in Goodneſs to thoſe now ſold for 7d. per Yard; and the few good Ribbons now made, fetch 9d. and 10d. per Yard, which about the ſame time were ſold for 6d. and 7d. The Duty of Five per Cent. on all Dry Goods, which the Dealers always throw in your Teeth, on aſking the Reaſon of the Advance, cannot be the Cauſe, as the Difference above mentioned is near 40 per Cent. Surely ſome Medium ought to be obſerved; and if the great Dealers would be contented with Villas ſomething ſmaller; and keeping only one Equipage each, they might allow the poor People ſuch Prices as would enable them to eat, cloathe and warm themſelves at this Time, when Proviſions are, by Combinations, kept up at very extravagant Prices, though the War is over."

On the firſt Inſtant it blew ſo hard in the Harbour of Dublin, the like was never known there, and continued till Monday Evening, in which Time ſeveral Ships drove aſhore, among which was the St. Anthony, bound for Cadiz; and, as far as may be judged, has ſtarted a Plank, and the Cargo under Water, and the ſaid Veſſel incapable of proceeding on her Voyage.

SAVANNAH, in Georgia, November 5.

By an Expreſs which arrived Yeſterday from Auguſta, which Place he left on Saturday laſt, we learn, that his Excellency our Governor, with his Attendants, arrived there on Tueſday Morning the 25th ult. the other Governors were expected the Day the Expreſs came away, and it was thought they would proceed to Buſineſs as on Monday. About 200 Cherokees, together with the Chickaſaws, Catawbas, two Choctaws, and 60 of the Upper and Lower Creeks, had been there ſome Days, and near 100 more of the latter daily looked for. A good Underſtanding ſubſiſts between the Cherokees and Chickaſaws, but the Creeks and Cherokees ſeem not to be upon the beſt of Terms.

November 10. Our Accounts from Auguſta are, That on Wedneſday the 2d the three Governors from Charleſtown, with their Attendants, arrived there; on Saturday the Congreſs was opened at Fort Auguſta, where the Indians, in Number between 7 and 800, received a Talk, to which they were to return an Anſwer on the Monday following. It is thought that the whole Buſineſs will be finiſhed, and that the four Governors will ſet out on their Return to the Georgia and South-Carolina Scout-Boats the End of this Week, or Beginning of next. A bad Underſtanding ſtill ſubſiſts between the Creeks and Cherokees.

We hear that the Boundaries of this Province are extended to St. John's River.

Nov. 17. On Monday the 7th Inſtant, the different Nations of Indians that were preſent at the Congreſs at Auguſta, returned their Anſwer to the Talk delivered by his Governor, in his Majeſty's Name, the Saturday before; on Wedneſday the 9th their Recollection made their Reply; and next Day a Treaty of Peace and Friendship was signed by the Governour and the Chiefs of the Indians; after which the Congress broke up. The Indians seemed all well disposed to the Quaker, sensible of his Majesty's Benevolence, and his Clemency towards them, in forgiving all past Offences, of their own accord extended the Boundaries between their Lands and the English considerably to the Westward.

NEW-YORK, December 5.

Last Monday Capt. Gardiner, of the 55th, and Lieut. Stoughton, came to Town from Albany. They belonged to a Detachment of 600 Men, under the Command of Major Wilkins, destined for Detroit, from Niagara; but on the 19th of October, at the East End of Lake Erie, 160 of our People, being in their Boats, were fired upon from the Beech by about 80 Indians, which killed and wounded 19 Men, (and among them Lieut. Johnston, late of Gorham's, killed) in the two fternmoft Boats, the Remainder of the Detachment being a-head about Half a Mile. Capt. Gardiner, who was in the Boats adjoining, immediately ordered the Men (50) under his Command ashore, and took Poffeffion of the Ground from which the Enemy had fired, and as foon as he obferved our People landing, he, with Lieut. Stoughton, and 28 Men, purfued the Indians, and in a few Minutes a fmart Skirmifh enfued, which lafted near an Hour, and in which three Men were killed on the Spot, and Capt. Gardiner, with Lieut. Stoughton, and 10 others, very badly wounded. During the Skirmifh, the Troops that did not follow the Indians, formed on the Bank, and covered the Boats.

PHILADELPHIA, December 8.

Extract of a Letter from Reading, in Berks County, November 25.

"The Indians murdered three Men on Tuefday, the 15th Inftant, about 22 Miles from this Place, on the North Side the Mountains, in the Forks of Schuylkill. Thefe unhappy Perfons were returning to a Plantation which they had deferted. Capt. Kern immediately, upon hearing of this Murder, marched after the Enemy, whom he purfued for two Days, but a very heavy Snow having fallen, and the Indians having fled a confiderable Time before Kern came up to the Place where the Murder was committed, he defifted from the Purfuit."

ANNAPOLIS, December 22.

The beginning of this Month, Capt. EVAN SHELBY of Frederick County, near Fort Frederick, had the Misfortune of having his Houfe Burnt, by Accident, whereby he has fuffer'd great Lofs, not only of his Houfe, but a great Part of his Furniture, and Proviftons.

Laft Week Died at George-Town, on Patowmack, in the 21ft Year of his Age, Mafter FRANCIS MACRUDER, a very hopeful and promifing young Man. It is imagined that his Death was occafioned by too violent Exercife at FIVES. This ought to be a Caution to others.

His Majefty's Packet-Boat, the Pitt, Capt. Brigftock, arrived at New-York on the Firft Inftant.

The Harriot Snow Packet, Capt. Robinfon, was the next which was to Sail from Falmouth, and will bring the November Mail.

There has been mention made very lately in fome of the Northern Papers, of the Appearance of a COMET, and many Perfons have fince look'd for it, but could not difcover it. A Perfon in this Town, Thinks, that he faw it, a little after VI laft Night, nearly Eaft, about 25 or 28 Degrees from the Horizon, but the brightnefs of the Moon prevented his feeing it afterwards.

JOHN HOWARD.

MARYLAND, Patowmack River, George-Town, Dec. 10, 1763.

AS I am fully determined on going Home in the Spring 1765, if thus alive, in order to make a Settlement with my Employers, Meffieurs JOHN GLASSFORD and Company, Merchants in GLASGOW, which I cannot accomplifh without making Settlements with my Cuftomers; I take this Method of informing them, That from this Date I have given up the Management of the Store to Mr. Robert Ferguſon, (who is well known to moft of them) that I may have it in my Power to attend properly on fettling all my former Tranfactions, and which I hope I fhall not be difficulted to get done againft the Spring 1765, having now all my Accounts ready for that Purpofe, and I flatter myfelf that none concerned will delay it on their Part, for however much I am inclined to be indulgent to thofe who really have it not in their Power to make Payment foon, yet I am under a Neceffity of requiring that every Perfon who have open Accounts with me, fhall make a Settlement of fuch Account, and their doing it foon will prevent them from being put to Expences, as well as Trouble to me. The Store at George-Town, on Patowmack River, now under the Management of Mr. Robert Ferguſon, will be fupplied with Goods, &c. as ufual, and I have not the leaft doubt of his giving Satisfaction to all who are Kind enough to favour him with their Cuftom, as well to my good old Cuftomers, as to others who may incline to open a Correfpondence with him. My Intention is to return to George-Town as early in the Spring 1766, as I can finifh the Bufinefs on which I am going Home. All juft Claims againft me, whether on Account of the Store, or properly on my own Account, fhall be fettled before I depart the Province.
